"DAMAGED GOODS" AT COLONIAL TONIGHT

"Damaged Goods," Eugene Brieux's intense dramatic endeavor, presented by Richard Bennett's coworkers, is the attraction at the Colonial Theatre tonight.

Familiarity with the teaching of the story of "Damaged Goods" has dispelled the illusion that the play is indecent and immoral. Widespread endorsement of men and women high in civic, social and National life has secured for this play the necessary enlightened audiences everywhere and who have rallied to the standard of the author in his great work.
Don't miss this virile drama.

WRECK DELAYS TRAINS.

The southbound passenger train on the International & Great Northern Railroad was delayed this morning on account of a freight train wreck on the Fort Worth division in which about fifteen cars were derailed above Marlin. The wreckage was cleared rapidly and the trains were delayed only a short time.

PREPARING FOR WORK.

Messrs. Abney and McCormick, to whom the contract was awarded for the engineering work connected with building good roads in road district No. 1 of this county, have established an office in the second story of the Smith building over the city National Bank. They are preparing to begin the preliminary work and are organizing their crews and making other necessary preparations. They expect to begin work tomorrow.

TYREE BELL HERE FOR GAME.
Tyree L. Bell, a member of the 1913-14 graduating class of the A. & M. College, and an old football star at that institution, arrived last night from Vicksburg, Miss., to witness the football game Friday between the A. & M. College and the University of Texas. Bell was a member of the team in 1911 when A. & M. was defeated by the university, and which was the last game between the two institutions.

H. E. Smith was up today from Millican.
G. W. Blanton was in the city today from his home on Cottonwood.

MATERIAL ARRIVED.

PRO MAJORITY IS 443.

Unofficial Estimate of the Result in Bell County.
Temple, Tex., Nov. 16.—Fuller and more complete returns from the prohibition election held Saturday in Bell County amount for a total of 6,361 votes, of which the pros received 3,462 and the antis 2,959, leaving the pro majority at 443. Every voting box in the county is accounted for in these totals, which are subject to official revision when the returns are canvassed by the county commissioners, which will occur within the next ten days. The vote is 1,000 short of normal, which is difficult for both sides to account for. The vote for prohibition shows an increase of 168 over that cast for the same cause in 1912.
Four arrests charging illegal voting in the prohibition election have been made, three of the parties being negroes. All of the alleged offenses are said to have occurred in Temple. The white man is charged with having assisted a negro in marking his ballot. All were released on giving bond.
